

Newsletter Mrs. Hansen

November 12-16, 2018

Upcoming Events

November 11 Veterans Day

November 20 Grandparents Day

November 21-23 Thanksgiving Break

Memory Verse:

Thursday, November 15 2 Timothy 4:18

The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to His heavenly kingdom. To Him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

7/8 EL: This week in 7/8 EL we will finish reading “The Adventure of the Speckled Band” by Doyle. We will analyze plot and look for the clues to the mystery. Students will write an essay about the importance of gratitude in one’s life. This week we start chapter 3 in Shurley English, which reviews writing techniques.

4th EL: We continue to work in Chapter 2 of the Shurley English curriculum. Students are learning to identify parts of speech and label sentences. This will help them to become better writers. We continue to work in our writing folders by adding paragraphs and creating essays. This week we will create an essay about George Washington’s Socks, our novel. Students are expected to read the novel outside of class and be ready to discuss with their peers. Students have been given a schedule of what is expected.

4/5 Math:

4th Grade Math:

Students will continue to multiply by multi-digit numbers. Students are working to improve their knowledge of times tables during skill building.

5th Grade Math: We had the mid-module assessment last week. Students will focus on dividing this week. They will be estimating quotients and dividing by two digits.

5/6 EL: Students have begun writing their essays on their favorite holidays. In Shurley English we will work on writing techniques. Students will have an assessment on Chapter 2. Students finished the RTT story and took their test. We read the Reader’s Theatre of RTT as well. Students will read the stage play of The Phantom Tollbooth during literature this week.

4th grade C/L Bible: We will study how Abraham was such a great example of faith and trust in the Lord. We will connect to the fact that God will provide all our needs by remembering all our blessings.